Mail this form with your payment to: Mobilization for Animals PA, Inc., P.O. Box 421, Conshohocken, PA 19428.

Yes! I would like to help protect animals from becoming homeless, abused and exploited.

I wish to contribute: $1000 $500 $250 $150 $100 $50* $25 Other $ _____

This contribution is for:

The Bunny Ammon Wildlife Sanctuary

Twelve acres of pristine forest are waiting to be officially converted to a wildlife sanctuary with the guidance and support of Mobilization for Animals PA and our supporters. Once an animal shelter run by Bunny Ammon, this land was bequeathed to the Wildlife Land Trust to be maintained as habitat for wildlife in perpetuity. Between $50,000 and $100,000 is required to remove old sheds and demolish an abandoned house before the sanctuary can be established. Donors of $1000 or more will be honored with a permanent animal friendly acknowledgment in the forest.

The Feral And Stray Cat Spay Neuter Clinic

Millions of homeless cats struggle to survive in the streets of Philadelphia and its suburbs. Mobilization for Animals PA and our supporters have sponsored Donna Shields, Susan Zimmerman and Don Shields, VMD in the creation of the first freestanding clinic devoted to the spay-neuter of feral cats. This low-cost (almost no-cost) clinic needs funds to continue and expand. Research has shown that TNR (Trap-Neuter-Return) programs for feral cats living in colonies reduces stray populations and ultimately reduces the number of cats killed in shelters each year. Donors of $500 or more will be honored with a plaque in the clinic.

Wildlife Contraception Research And Education

Wild animals struggle to survive in a world that has prioritized its resources for the one species – ours. Sadly, most wild animal species—particularly mammals—face gratuitous slaughter every day. Humane wildlife population control can only be achieved by contraception through darts and bait. In an effort to support humane population control, Mobilization for Animals PA and our supporters have funded wildlife contraception research with deer, wild horses and buffalo. Donors of $250 or more will receive a copy of Jane Goodall's "The Four Trusts."

Animal Advocacy And Activism

Whether it's the unending fight against animal abuse—on the steps of the state capitol rotunda, legal battles to protect animals exploited for entertainment, vanity or for "sport," or educational programs to enlighten the public about the positive impact of choosing a cruelty-free lifestyle, Mobilization for Animals PA, Inc. works hard to bring animal protection issues to the forefront. Donors of $100 or more receive a pair of wildlife mugs.

Use my contribution in any amount where it is needed most.

Contributions of $50 and more will be listed in publicity materials, which may include the newsletter and website.

- I do not want my gift acknowledged on the website or newsletter.
- I wish to decline a gift so my entire donation can help the animals.
